[Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f); L.R. 26-1]

Scheduling Conf.: May 1, 2017
 Conf. Time: 1:30 p.m.
 Courtroom: 8A

Hon. Beverly Virginia A. Phillips
 United States District Court

1 Pursuant to Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Wayne
2 Henderson and Plaintiff Denise Henderson (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), and Defendants
3 California Resources Corporation ("Defendant CRC"), California Resources Production
4 Corporation ("Defendant CRPC") and Chevron USA, Inc. ("Defendant Chevron") (collectively
5 "Defendants") met and conferred on April 10, 2017, per the Court's Order of February 22, 2017
6 (ECF No. 15) to discuss issues addressed in the parties Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The parties, by 7 and through their counsel of record, hereby jointly report as follows:

8 A. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

9 The parties agree that this is a Jury Case and that a Jury Demand has been timely
10 requested.

11 B. SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION

12 This diversity action is brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332 et seq., that the Plaintiffs
13 are residents of the State of Alabama and that Defendant Chevron is a Pennsylvania Corporation
14 with offices in San Ramon, California and conducts business in the County of Los Angeles,
15 California, and that Defendants CRC and CRPC are Delaware Corporations that conduct
16 business in the County of Los Angeles, California, and that the amount in controversy exceeds 17 $75,000.

18 C. LEGAL ISSUES

19 This action arises out of the acquisition of the serious form of coccidiomycosis (also 20 known as "valley fever" or "cocci"). Plaintiff Wayne Henderson maintains that he was brought 21 by Defendants to work on McKittrick Oil Fields, was not warned about the presence of the 22 spores that cause the illness, and that the Defendants failed to implement the customary and 23 available preventative measures designed to protect individuals from acquiring the disease and,
24 especially, individuals of African descent, such as Plaintiff Wayne Henderson, who are up to 25 fourteen (14) times more likely to develop the serious and terminal form of the disease. Plaintiff
26 Wayne Henderson asserts that as a result of Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff Wayne Henderson
27
28

1 acquired the more serious form of coccidioidomycosis, and as a result, has undergone surgeries,
2 incurred (and will continue to incur) tremendous medical expenses, and – following a lifetime of
3 gainful employment – has lost his capacity to work. Plaintiff Wayne Henderson also maintains
4 that – as a result of the severity of his infection – he has incurred (and will continue to incur)
5 substantial documented pain and suffering.

6 Plaintiff Wayne Henderson alleges that Defendants are the owners, operators, managers,
7 or otherwise control the McKittrick Oil Fields, and has asserted two causes of action against all
8 Defendants, both sounding in negligence. Plaintiff Wayne Henderson has asserted one cause of 9 action for failure to warn and failure to protect, and a second cause of action for premises
10 liability. Plaintiff Denise Henderson has asserted a claim of loss of consortium against all 11 Defendants.

12 Defendants deny Plaintiffs' allegations. Defendant Chevron maintains that Chevron, at 13 no time, contracted with Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's employer to perform work at Chevron's
14 McKittrick facility. Chevron also denies that Plaintiff Wayne Henderson worked at Chevron's
15 McKittrick facility and has no record of either Plaintiff Wayne Henderson or his employer
16 working at Chevron's McKittrick facility. CRC maintains facilities separate and apart from 17 those owned and operated by Chevron, and it appears that Plaintiff worked at CRC's facilities
18 but not at Chevron's facilities.

19 Defendants CRC and CRPC maintain that they owed no duty to Plaintiffs. Defendants
20 CRC and CRPC further maintain that there is no causal connection between their actions and 21 Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's illness or disease. CRC and CRPC took all appropriate measures
22 and precautions to warn and protect persons working on their property or on their behalf from 23 airborne dust to the greatest extent possible. CRC and CRPC had no knowledge of what persons
24 (or the race of such persons) Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's employer Environmental Waste
25 Minimization, Inc. ("EWMI") employed to perform EWMI's contractual duties. Defendants
26
27
28

1 CRC and CRPC maintain that all duties regarding safety were delegated to Plaintiff Wayne
2 Henderson's employer by contract.

3 D. PARTIES, EVIDENCE, ETC.

4 1. PLAINTIFFS' PARTIES AND EVIDENCE

5 Plaintiff Wayne Henderson and Denise Henderson are residents of the State of Alabama.
6 Plaintiff Wayne Henderson was infected during the past year. Defendants are presently in 7 possession of information relating to Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's reasons for arriving at 8 McKittrick Oil Fields, the dates of his infection, and the dates where Defendants first provided
9 warnings to Plaintiff Wayne Henderson about the risk of acquiring cocci at the McKittrick Oil
10 Fields (Plaintiffs maintain this occurred after he was already infected).

11 Plaintiffs have provided counsel for Defendants, in Plaintiffs' Initial Disclosures, with 12 Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's medical records to date and the names of some of Plaintiff Wayne
13 Henderson's medical providers who may testify at trial, and some of the family members and
14 friends of Plaintiff Wayne Henderson who may testify as to the physical impact that the illness
15 had on Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's body.

16 Plaintiffs anticipate providing further proof of the impact Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's
17 acquisition of cocci, in addition to expert opinions on, inter alia, Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's
18 damages (medical and loss of earnings) and expert opinions on the standard of care of employers
19 in the area surrounding McKittrick Oil Fields to warn and protect against invitees becoming 20 infected with cocci.

21 2. DEFENDANTS CRC AND CRPC'S PARTIES AND EVIDENCE

22 Defendants CRC and CRPC are Delaware corporations operating in the oil industry in 23 California. CRC (or CRPC) utilized all precautions and provided all warnings standard in the 24 industry concerning airborne spores. CRC and CRPC will provide such evidence that its 25 subcontractors were made aware of airborne spores and directed to take appropriate precautions
26 accordingly.
27
28

3. DEFENDANT CHEVRON'S PARTIES AND EVIDENCE

Chevron, if not dismissed from this litigation, anticipates that employee Darren Walwrath will testify that neither Plaintiff Wayne Henderson nor his employer ever worked at Chevron's McKittrick facility. He will also testify that contractors, such as Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's employer, were responsible for providing Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to their employees and that Chevron does not provide PPE to contractors' employees.

Chevron employee Alanna Rolow is Chevron's occupational hygiene specialist. She will likely testify regarding the responsibility of Chevron's contractors to provide PPE to their employees.

E. DAMAGES

1. PLAINTIFFS' ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES

Plaintiff Wayne Henderson alleges to have suffered substantial injuries, currently undergoing treatment, and will require lifelong care. Plaintiff Wayne Henderson has not been able to return to work since the progression of his illness and it is not apparent when, if at all, he will be able to return to work. Plaintiff Wayne Henderson and Plaintiff Denise Henderson have suffered substantial out-of-pocket expenses in relation to Plaintiff Wayne Henderson's medical care. Plaintiffs are seeking special and general damages in an amount to be proven at trial. Plaintiffs are seeking punitive damages against the Defendants.

2. DEFENDANTS' ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES

Defendants deny any liability and deny that any damages are due and owing to Plaintiffs.

F. INSURANCE

CRC and CRPC have tendered Plaintiffs' claims to their insurance carrier and will provide relevant insurance information to Plaintiffs.

G. MOTIONS

1. PLAINTIFFS' ANTICIPATED MOTIONS

4 O. INDEPENDENT EXPERT OR MASTER

5 The parties at present do not anticipate the need for an independent expert or master.

17 c. Defendant Chevron's Additional Parties and Claims

18 Defendant Chevron does not currently anticipate adding any parties to this action but 19 reserves it rights to do so should facts be discovered which warrant such action.

20 2. Electronic Discovery

21 The parties agree that for any electronically stored information that such information may 22 be produced in tangible form in an organized manner on CDs or DVDs in readable format for 23 standard programs for Windows-based operating systems (e.g., Microsoft Windows, Adobe
24 Acrobat, etc.). In addition, at the election of a party, with the consent of the other party, not to be 25 unreasonably withheld, and considering the volume of information to be exchanged, the 26 producing party may elect to produce such information by printing the files as documents and 27
28

1 Bates numbering the documents. In any event, the parties agree to produce information in a
2 manner such that it maybe be easily reviewed and identified by the receiving party and the Court.

4 The Plaintiffs agree to proceed before a Magistrate Judge for all purposes in this matter.

5 CRC and CRPC do not agree to proceed before a Magistrate Judge for all purposes in this 6 matter.

7 4. Severance & Bifurcation

8 The parties do not anticipate the necessity of any proposals regarding severance,
9 bifurcation, or other specific order of proof, except that if punitive damages are sought by 10 Plaintiffs at the time of trial, Defendants will seek bifurcation of these issues.

11 5. Protective Order

12 Plaintiffs have not requested or sought a protective order.

13 CRC and CRPC reserve the right to seek a protective order.
